Everest base camp & Pokalde Peak

This exciting trek in the Everest region gives you the opportunity to fulfil a dream of viewing our highest summit close at hand with ample time to enjoy some of the most breathtaking scenery in the Himalaya. From Kathmandu we fly to Lukla, and the adventure begins as we land at its tiny airstrip. We spend several days trekking through the homelands of the Sherpa people, among their villages and monasteries, with distant views of Everest and neighbouring Ama Dablam, its unmistakable profile a landmark from afar.

A day is spent at Namche Bazaar and at Pheriche, to allow time to acclimatise, an important factor in your enjoyment of the trek. We have several days in the Everest area and those who have fully acclimatised may trek to the Everest Base Camp, but without doubt the highlight for most will be the awe-inspiring views which unfold from the summit of Kala Pattar - the Khumbu Glacier, Nuptse and the south-west face of Everest itself.

We then have the option (snow conditions permitting) to take a more challenging route back out toward Lukla. This involves crossing the Kongma La and offers the chance to climb Pokalde, a 5806m trekking peak, before rejoining the main trail lower down. At the end of the trek, we fly back to Kathmandu.

To enjoy the trek fully you need to be fit and walk regularly. Previous trekking experience is obviously an asset but is not essential. Bear in mind that ascents and descents on some days could exceed 900m, with steep sections in places. The trek involves several days at high altitude which may affect your performance, though rest days are built into the trek to help you acclimatise. The ascent of the Kongma La and Pokalde Peak is graded strenuous but is optional and you do not need to decide in advance if you wish to do it. If you have any doubts as to your suitability for the trek, please telephone us for advice.

Itinerary

LODGE & CAMPING TREK

walking times are approximate

Day 1

Arrive Kathmandu

Namaste! And welcome to Kathmandu, the colourful capital of Nepal where ornately carved balconies mingle with beautiful shrines and temples. Your adventure begins with a welcome meeting on arrival at the exit gate of Kathmandu airport. Our staff will welcome you with CAT's palm plate and take you to your hotel. For the rest of the day you can relax at the hotel or take a short evening walk around local markets on your own.

Day 2

Free Day in Kathmandu

Explore the fascinating city of Kathmandu, with its temples and markets, or take an optional excursion (can be booked locally through our Nepal office) into the Kathmandu Valley.

Day 3

Drive to Ramechhap, Fly to Lukla and trek to Phakding 2600m (3 hours' drive, 16 mins flight, 3 hours walking.)

This morning we leave the hotel at 3 am to drive to Ramechhap. Then, we fly into Lukla airport, at 2800m. Leaving Lukla, the path winds along the hillside to the east of the Dudh Kosi River, past teahouses and lodges to Phakding.

Day 4

Phakding to Namche Bazaar 3440m (5 hours walking.)

A steady climb through the fertile Dudh Kosi valley with its many farms and settlements to Namche Bazaar 3440m, the most important Sherpa town and a former trading centre with Tibet.

Day 5

Day 5 Namche Bazaar acclimatisation day

Today is an acclimatisation day. Namche Bazaar is well worth exploring, with its Buddhist monastery and distant views of Everest. For better acclimatisation we recommended that you walk to the Everest View Hotel (½ day walk) or to one of the nearby villages such as Khunde, or Thame.

Day 6

Namche Bazaar to Thyangboche 3867m (5 - 6 hours walking.)

After our rest day we set off trekking again. Within an hour the towering summit of Ama Dablam appears to the east, while glimpses of Everest lure us onwards. The gentle trail crosses the Dudh Kosi river at Phunki Tenga where we start the long climb up to Thyangboche, where we lodge overnight near the monastery.

Day 7

Thyangboche to Pheriche/Dengboche 4252m (4 - 5 hours walking.)

We descend to the Dudh Kosi river through rhododendron forests. Though they are only in bloom in spring, it is nevertheless a wonderful sight to see these magnificent trees in their natural surroundings. We continue to Pangboche village where the monastery once held a yeti scalp, apparently stolen a few years back!

Day 8

Pheriche/Dengboche acclimatization day

Today we have an acclimatisation day at Pheriche. We recommend local walk to gain height during the day, returning to spend a second night at the same altitude. This is a very important aspect of our trek and will undoubtedly assist with the success; as well as with our enjoyment of it.

Day 9

Pheriche/Dengboche to Lobuche 4930m (3 hours walking.)

Leaving Pheriche, we head over dry grazing lands, climbing gradually to Duglha. The surrounding stony wastes are the terminal moraines of the mighty Khumbu glacier, which we climb over to reach Lobuche, a cluster of shepherds' huts and tea houses.

Day 10

Lobuche to Gorak Shep 5100m and Everest Base Camp 5364m (6 hours walking.)

A 3 hour walk from Lobuche brings us to Gorak Shep, the site of the 1953 expedition's base camp. After setting up the room and having lunch, we hike to EBC and back to Gorak Shep.

Day 11

Kala Pattar 5550m (5 hours walking.)

An ascent of Kala Pattar at 5550m is highly recommended for the view of Everest. The climb takes about 2 hours, but the effort may be rewarded by the classic view of Everest and the Khumbu Icefall, as well as Lhotse & Nuptse, with Pumori immediately above. The return to Lobuche is a 3 hour walk.

Day 12

Lobuche to Kongma La 5535m (6 hours walking.)

The ascent up the Kongma La and Pokalde Peak depends on snow conditions and is optional, though it does provide a scenic and challenging alternative to retracing our steps back down the valley. Anyone who prefers may return via the same route, taking it at a leisurely pace. Kongma La is a pass used as a yak route between Khumbu and Chukkung pastures. We camp overnight

Day 13

Kongma La to Pokalde Peak 5806m & to Deboche 3770m (10 -11 hours walking.)

We have two days set aside to climb Pokalde in case the weather is bad on one day. It will be a very long, but rewarding day, if the snow conditions permit us to climb Pokalde Peak 5,806m. After the climb we have a long descent to the valley and the village of Dengboche from where we continue to Deboche. Tonight we might camp or stay in a lodge.

Day 14

Contingency day

Second day for climbing Pokalde if required, or contingency a day for acclimatisation purposes. Again we may camp or stay in a lodge tonight.

Day 15

Deboche to Namche Bazaar 3440m (4 - 5 hours walking.)

Rejoining the main trail, we continue to Thyangboche Monastery in a magical setting that commands impressive views of shapely Ama Dablam. The scenery changes yet again as we walk through woodlands to reach Namche Bazaar. An optional evening walk will give us our last views of Everest.

Day 16

Namche Bazaar to Lukla 2800m (6 hours walking.)

We may wake to the sound of Tibetan horns high above the village. From here the deep valley of the Dudh Khosi drops away as we retrace our steps to Lukla.

Day 17

Fly from Lukla to Ramechhap (16 mins flight), Drive to Kathmandu (4 hours' drive.)

Weather permitting, we will fly to Ramechhap, and drive to Kathmandu with beautiful views along the way. There should be time to do a little shopping in Kathmandu during the evening, or to relax at the hotel.

Day 18

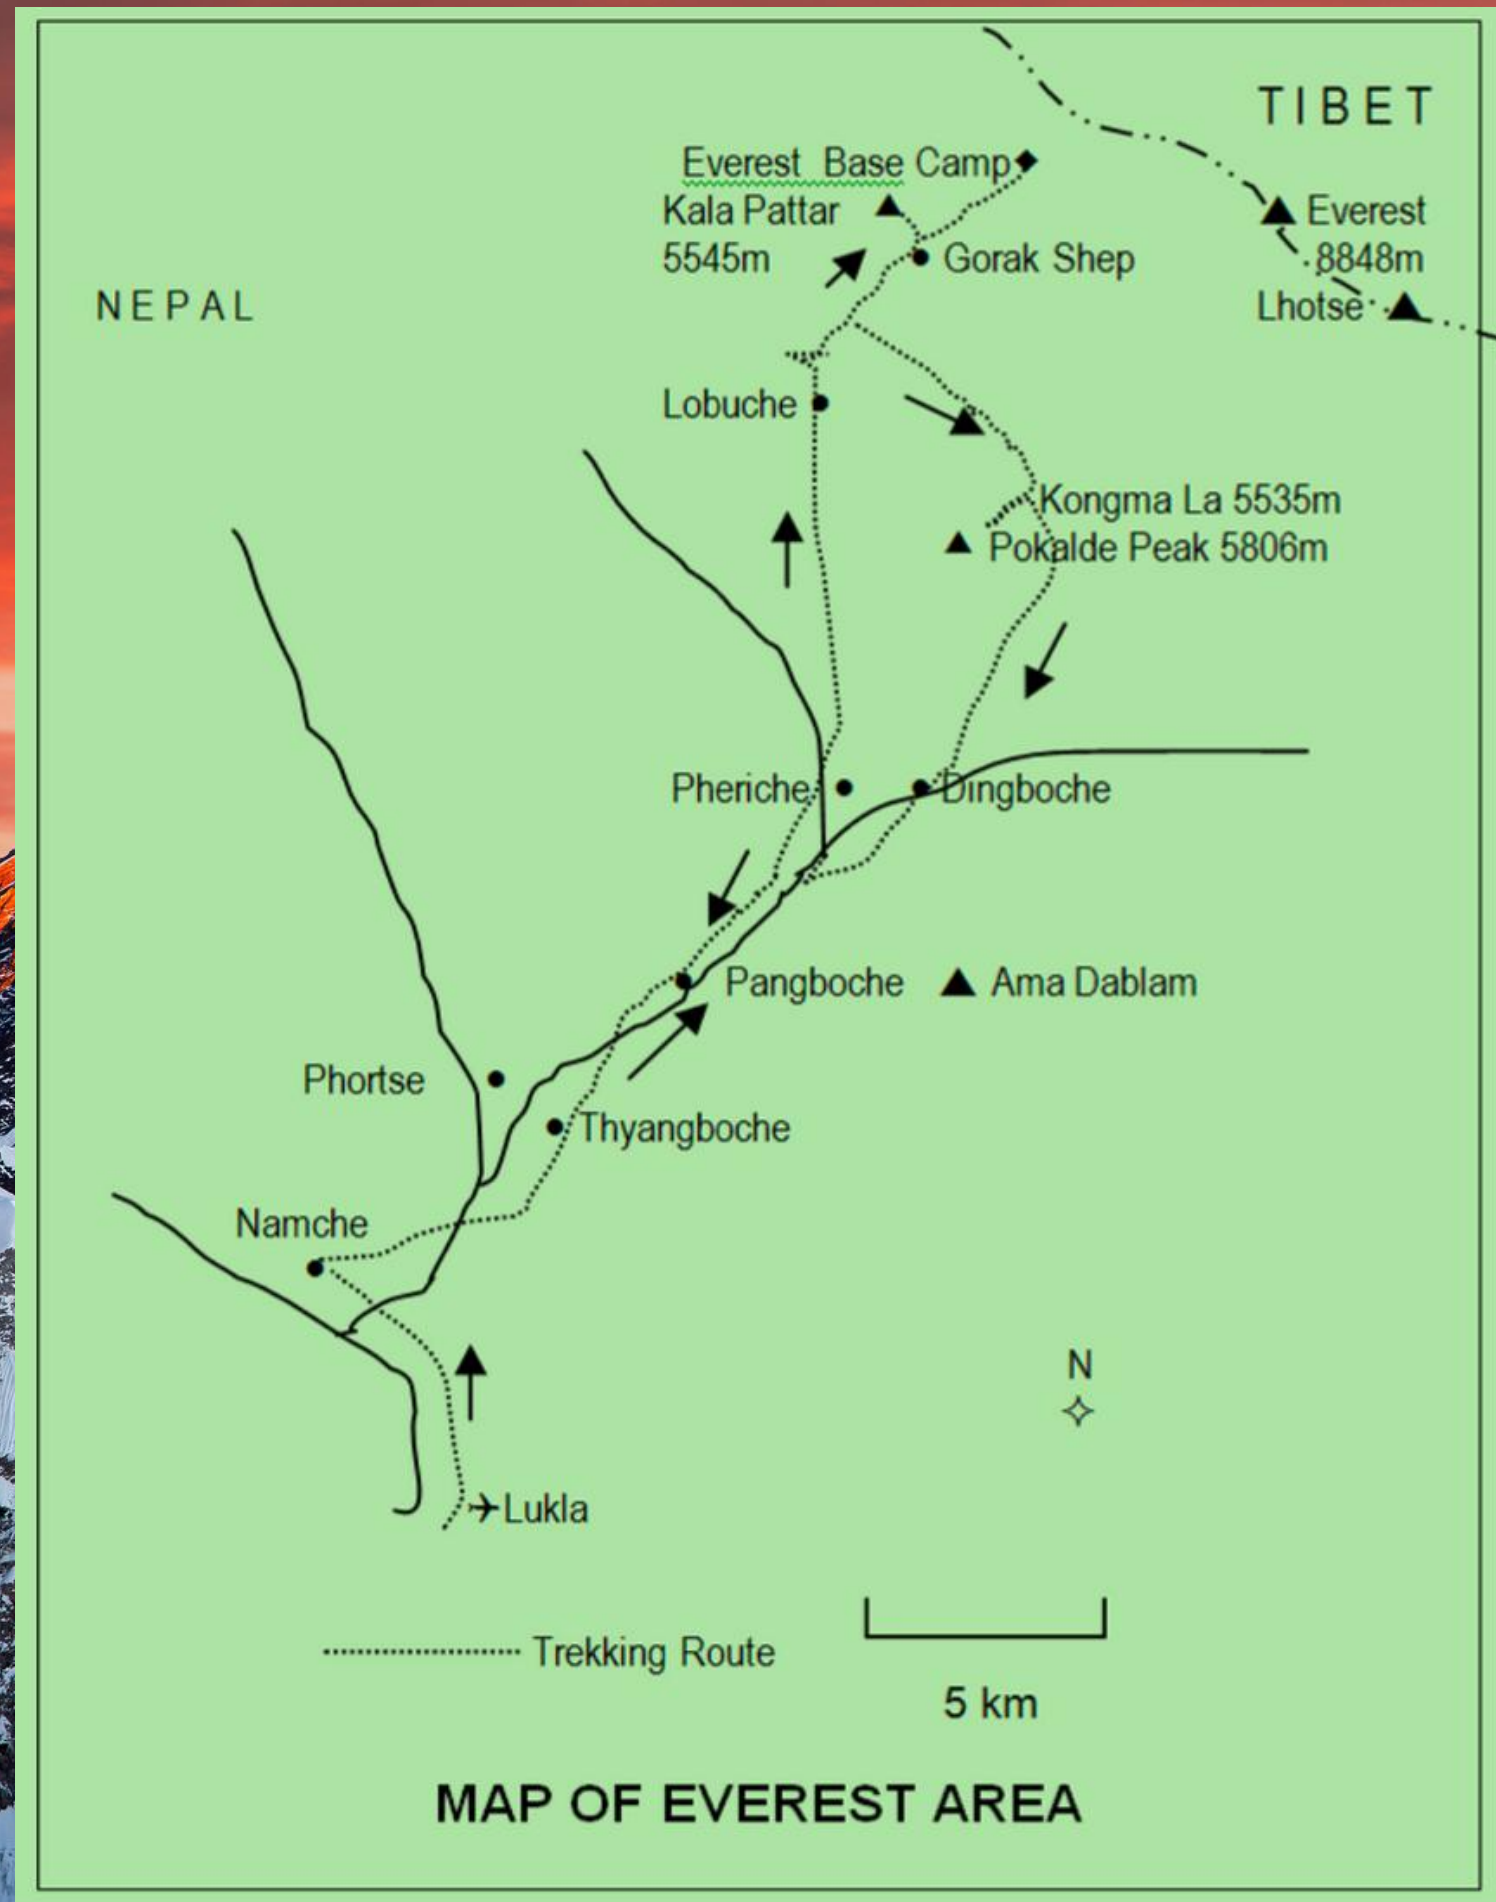

Free day in Kathmandu

A chance to do some shopping, explore at leisure or just relax by the hotel pool and reflect on your trek.
